

Ports, Courts, and Torts

A BRIEF SURVEY
OF LEGAL ISSUES AFFECTING YOUR BUSINESS

LAW OFFICE OF ALAN K. GOLDST_{IN}

A close-up photograph of a person's hands operating a boat's winch. The person is wearing a dark jacket and is pulling on a white rope with blue stripes. The winch is a polished metal device with a central core. The background shows the blue ocean and the white structure of the boat's deck.

Navigating the Winds of Change—

"WE MUST SAIL, AND NOT DRIFT, NOR LIE AT ANCHOR."

O.W. Holmes, Sr.

The Legal Challenges of Cyber Risk

Biometric Data and the Law of Privacy

Discrimination Claims— An Expanding Sea

Accident Investigating and Reporting

Accident Investigation Advice

Preserving Evidence

Witness Statements

Government Investigators

Accident Reports

Root Cause Analysis

Using the Law to Help Find Safe Harbor

LAW OFFICE OF
ALAN K. GOLDSTEIN

Serving the Pacific Rim from the San Francisco
Bay Area

Specializing in Admiralty and Maritime Law Including the Laws and Regulations Governing U.S. Ports

alan@alankgoldsteinlaw.com

415-870-5127